Dialog 1

Nurse: Hello, Michael. How are you feeling right now?

Michael: Good afternoon, I am feeling much better now.

Nurse: Great! Today you look _____(1)_____. I think you may be allowed to go back home in a few days. Do you miss your friends at school, Michael?

Michael: Yes, I really miss them. I also miss Mr. Fred, my science teacher. We normally study with him every day. Since I have been in hospital for almost a week now, _____(2)_____.

Nurse: Don't worry, Michael. Your health is more important than any other things in the world. You can't do anything well without excellent physical and mental well-being. After you recover, you can enjoy all of your activities. You can play with your friends all day long or you can study or keep practicing your skills as you like. We will take good care of you until you fully recover. Your health is our _____(3)_____.

Michael: _____(4)_____. I really appreciate your kindness.

Nurse: We have good news to inform you today. Seeing the steady improvement in your health, we are going to reduce your dosage, only one medicine after breakfast and two before going to bed.

Michael: _____(5)_____ after hearing this.

Nurse: Yet, we still need to have your blood tested tomorrow.

Michael: Really?

Nurse: Yes, to check and to make sure that _____(6)_____.

Michael: So, what should I do before this upcoming blood test?

Nurse: _____(7)_____ for 8–12 hours before the test. It means that you should not eat or drink anything before having your blood drawn.

Michael: So, what time should I stop eating or drinking?

Nurse: After 11 o'clock tonight.

Michael: Then, I'll do it before 11.

Nurse: So, _____(8)_____. And, I promise you that you'll get a healthy and sumptuous lunch after the blood test.

Michael: Ok. Thank you so much.

Dialog 2

Oliver: Good afternoon, sir. May I come in, please?

Richard: Sure, come on in, Oliver! _____(1)_____.

Oliver: Thank you, sir.

Richard: Well, I need to talk to you after I read an overall assessment of your work performance. Are you ready for what I am about to tell you?

Oliver: Yes, _____(2)_____.

Richard: There's good news and bad news. _____(3)_____?

Oliver: I prefer bad news first, sir.

Richard: Well, I have to tell you that you will no longer work as a staff in the sales department. This will _____(4)_____ on May 15.

Oliver: Are you kidding me? And, what is the good news, sir?

Richard: I'm so glad to inform you that we are _____(5)_____ your work efficiency, effort, punctuality and decisiveness. Your ability is _____(6)_____!

Oliver: Oh, thank you so much, sir. What a relief!

Richard: We're so lucky to have you here in our organization. You're so talented!

Oliver: _____(7)_____.

Richard: As a result, we decided to promote you as the general manager. Congratulations!

Oliver: Oh, thank you so much! I couldn't believe my ears! I appreciate it greatly.

Richard: _____(8)_____. Thank you for taking our company to great heights of success. Without your dedication and hard work, it would not have been possible.
